SUPERIOR COURT OPERATIONAL CHANGES IN RESPONSE TO COVID-19

Presiding Judge Michael J. Carrozzo signed an administrative order this afternoon continuing most scheduled matters in the Santa Barbara County Superior Court to a date after April 3, 2020. Parties with cases scheduled during that time will receive notification of their re-scheduled date.

Most courtrooms in Santa Barbara County Superior Court will be closed. Only the criminal arraignment (hearing only in-custody matters) and juvenile courtrooms in Santa Maria and Santa Barbara will remain open.

Jurors currently serving on jury duty should report to court to receive direction from the judge presiding over that trial.

The clerk's offices will remain open. Superior Court employees should report to work as previously scheduled.
